

Road to Recovery

Rebuilding a Modern, Equitable Economy

Photo by Eric Kieley courtesy of Morley Builders

FRIDAY
FEBRUARY
19th

A virtual summit experience hosted in partnership with the Office of Mayor Eric Garcetti, the UCLA Luskin Center for Innovation, and Stuart A. Gabriel, Arden Realty Chair & Professor of Finance, and Director of the Richard S. Ziman Center for Real Estate.

The Los Angeles Business Council's Mayoral Housing, Transportation and Jobs Summit is the most anticipated policy convening in Southern California for business, government, academic and community leaders to address housing affordability, transit accessibility and equitable, economic development. Join us as leaders address the 2021 legislative session, which will focus on housing production, zoning reform, securing a permanent funding source, reusing surplus public land, data transparency, and local jurisdiction accountability.

As California navigates disruptions due to Covid-19, please join us in this critical moment as we hear from of top leaders and experts, including a special keynote and state leadership panel discussing the housing and homeless policy goals for the 2021 legislative session:

Keynote

The Honorable
Toni G. Atkins

California Senate
President pro Tempore

Developing a Bicameral Housing and Homeless State Policy Agenda

Moderator
The Honorable
Darrell Steinberg,
Mayor, City of Sacramento

The Honorable
Anthony Rendon,
Speaker, California
State Assembly

The Honorable
Scott Wiener,
Chair, California
Senate Housing
Committee

The Honorable
David Chiu,
Chair, California
Assembly Housing
Committee

Click here for more information

— PLATINUM SPONSORS —

JPMORGAN CHASE & Co.

